Here is where you are going to find luxury. From the incredible views of the city and monuments accessible from the large balconies and terraces outside, to the sleek granite countertops, studio lighting, and huge floor-to-ceiling windows inside, finding what you want at 2001 Clarendon Blvd is easy. Leave the comforts of your new apartment and walk into the relaxing environment of your contemporary apartment complex. Enjoy a rooftop pool, terrace, and lounge or grill some food with friends while playing billiards, watching TV, or streaming music. Our ultra-modern amenities meet up with responsible features like having the largest green roof in the area that helps to make 2001 Clarendon Blvd a LEED-certified green building. We have what you want, where you want to be here at 2001 Clarendon Blvd. Welcome home.

Location

2001 Clarendon Blvd is a short walk from the Courthouse Metro Station which gives residents unparalleled ease of access to the area's wide array of sites and destinations. Getting to downtown Washington, DC in minutes is just the beginning. Get around to nearby Tysons Corner and enjoy the area's best shopping, or head over to Eastern Market and enjoy the city's fastest growing culinary epicenter. While getting away is simple and easy, you may find that Clarendon actually has everything you want and need. Nearby restaurants and bars provide all the great food you could want and local shops and retail spots make buying your favorite things as easy as can be. 2001 Clarendon Blvd gives you access to so much while keeping the look and feel of an upscale suburban city.
